Der 23. Psalm.

Der Herr ist mein Hirt; mir wird nichts mangeln. Er weidet mich auf einer grünen Aue, und führet mich zum frischen Wasser.

... Und ob ich schon wanderte im finstern Thal, fürchte ich kein Unglück; denn Du bist bei mir, dein Stecken und Stab trösten mich.

Moderato pastorale.

Otto Malling, Op.89. Nr.1.

Man. III.

Manual. pp

Pedal. pp

The musical score is written for a three-part organ system: Manual III, Manual, and Pedal. The Manual III part is in the treble clef with a 6/8 time signature and starts with a pp dynamic. The Manual part is in the bass clef with a 6/8 time signature. The Pedal part is in the bass clef with a 6/8 time signature and starts with a pp dynamic. The score consists of three systems of music, each with three staves. The lyrics are written below the Manual and Pedal staves. The music is in a pastoral style, characterized by flowing lines and sustained chords.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a treble clef staff at the top, a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) in the middle, and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The music features a melodic line in the treble staff with slurs and ties, and a bass line in the grand staff. A dynamic marking trang. is present in the middle staff.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It features the same three-staff layout. The melodic line in the treble staff continues with slurs and ties. The grand staff and bass staff provide harmonic support. Dynamic markings ten. are visible in the middle and bass staves.

Third system of musical notation, concluding the page. It features the same three-staff layout. The melodic line in the treble staff continues with slurs and ties. The grand staff and bass staff provide harmonic support. The system ends with a double bar line and a common time signature C.

THE ORGAN WORKS OF OTTO MALLING

Malling is known to organists in this country by a few of his writings, for example, his "Shepherds in the field" and his "Easter Morning" but his monumental series of organ compositions illustrating other Scriptural subjects is not so familiar, because of their comparatively inaccessibility heretofore—a condition now removed by THE BOSTON MUSIC Co's. acquisition of the Sole Agency for America.

To all organists, in Protestant or Catholic churches, who take care to adapt their solo numbers to the church season, Malling's musicianly works throw open a treasury of finely imaginative and original expressions of devotional thought and revered event. For recitals too, with the added opportunity for program annotation, these works have direct application. We would call attention to the variety of other numbers suited to performance in the Passion-tide and Easter season.

BOOKS THAT REENFORCE THE CHOIR-DIRECTOR'S EFFORTS

THE PARISHIONAL CHOIR

30 ANTHEMS FOR MIXED VOICES

[n. 1.25]

Compiled and Edited by ARTHUR H. RYDER

In this Anthem-book, just issued after most careful preparation by a church musician of long and varied experience, we present a collection of numbers having uncommon adaptability, effective for limited choral resources, and at the same time worthy of interspersing among more elaborate selections in the best programs.

A striking combination of strong features has been thoughtfully striven for: 17 of the numbers are copyright originals, to be had in no other compilation, and 5 are new arrangements; a fair proportion of standard (but not hackneyed) selections is included; nearly all of the anthems lend themselves to the best prevailing taste of Protestant churches, including Episcopal and non-trinitarian services; 24 are suited to year-round employment as general anthems, while simultaneously the special application of most of the material to stated occasions and seasons is possible and fitting; 11 of the numbers require no soloists. A useful classification is provided, pointing out anthems of quiet character, those having more dynamic intensity, short anthems, and selections suitable for use as responses, invocations, morning anthems, vesper music, for communion, harvest, various festivals, and the seasons of the Church Year.

Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged

A PLAIN-SONG SERVICE BOOK

FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

[n. 1.00]

By ERNEST DOUGLAS

This book occupies a distinctive place, serving an ideal which includes recognition of plain-song's rightful share in the most churchly type of service—a recognition endorsed by the choir directors who have exhausted the supply of the first two editions. It constitutes a complete and independent choir-manual of the music to the entire liturgy, comprising the choral service and canticles of Morning and Evening Prayer, with Litany, the Merbecke Communion Service, the Missa de Angelis (the latter two with traditionally appropriate organ harmonization) a complete musical setting of Requiem, Occasional Anthems, the Burial Office, Processions, etc.

The author's organ treatments of plain-song exhibit a purity of harmonization within the church modes that in itself would serve to confer an unrivaled value. Alternative Anglican settings for the Benedictus, Magnificat and Nunc dimittis are provided also, with a pointing that excels in flexibility. The influence of this book, in its preceding editions, has already been noticeable in the furtherance of plain-song's appreciation and more extensive use, in which influence the factors of absolute authenticity, completeness and convenience have united in fortunate measure.
