Bridal Dawn

O dawn of love's fulfilment!
O day desired so long!
You come with gleams of quiv'ring light,
In waves of trembling song,
Across the waste of waters
A shadowy veil is drawn,
And all my heart is waiting
To greet the wondrous dawn.

Oh, let your eyes, beloved,
Look eastward now with mine,
Until the rosy flood of dawn
Shall bring the hour divine.
And now the beam of morning
Fires all the earth and sea,
To light with brighter glory
All other days to be.
