—For the FLUTE and PIANO FORTE.—

SELECT AIRS from MOZART's OPERAS, newly arranged for the Piano Forte and Flute, by J.F. BURROWES. In N.os Pr. 4s each.

Of the Works of the divine Mozart, it may justly be said, that "it were useless to praise, & vain to blame them"; their merits are now so well appreciated by all the lovers of classic excellence & purity of composition; and so long have these Operas in particular been the admiration of the world, that such an adaptation as the present, it is presumed, cannot fail to prove a most interesting and desirable acquisition to the Libraries of all the favored votaries of Apollo. The subjects are carefully arranged from the Original Scores, and the character of each piece is faithfully preserved.

TWELVE FAVORITE AIRS with Vars. by C. NICHOLSON. Pr. 3s each.

These Variations will be found to possess great sweetness and brilliancy, and though divested of that extreme difficulty which characterizes many of the compositions of the day, yet they are sufficiently so to be interesting to the most finished performer.
