"SIGN THE PLEDGE FOR MOTHER'S SAKE"

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words by Mrs M. A. KIDDER.

Music by Mrs E. A. PARKHURST.

Fa-ther, dear, I watch'd and waited, Knowing you would come at

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are: "Fa-ther, dear, I watch'd and waited, Knowing you would come at". The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a simpler bass line in the left hand.

last, Tho'the tears I could not hinder, And my heart was beating

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line lyrics are: "last, Tho'the tears I could not hinder, And my heart was beating". The piano accompaniment maintains the same rhythmic pattern as the first system.

fast! Now you're in this Temperance Meeting, Where your name they'll gladly

Rit

The third system of the musical score. The vocal line lyrics are: "fast! Now you're in this Temperance Meeting, Where your name they'll gladly". A Rit (ritardando) marking is placed above the final notes of the vocal line. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern.

take, — Will you, will you dearest father, Sign the Pledge for mother's sake!

The fourth and final system of the musical score. The vocal line lyrics are: "take, — Will you, will you dearest father, Sign the Pledge for mother's sake!". The piano accompaniment concludes with the same rhythmic pattern.

Will you leave off drinking, father,
 It is such a dreadful sin!
 And dear mother pines in sorrow,
 While her cheek grows pale and thin;
 She sits up for you till midnight,
 Long, long hours she keeps awake,—
 Do now write your name, dear father,
 Sign the Pledge for mother's sake.

3

When the angels took sweet brother,
 Up to dwell with them on high,
 When the little grave was cover'd
 How she pray'd that we might die!
 Then she mourn'd and cried in anguish,
 'Till it seem'd her heart would break—
 Will you, will you not dear father,
 Sign the Pledge for mother's sake?
