Hugo Karl Wilhelm Julius Riemann (1849-1919) was a German musicologist and teacher who studied law, history and philosophy at Berlin University and did not turn to music until after military service 1870/71 in the Franco-Prussian war. He occupied important posts as a music teacher in several German cities and eventually became a professor at Leipzig University. He was an indefatigable scholar and a prolific writer on musical subjects who is probably best known as the compiler of the Musiklexicon and as editor of Denkmäler deutscher Tonkunst, a ground-breaking edition of early music.
