THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

AMERICAN NATIONAL HYMN.

MAESTOSO.

PIANO.

The piano introduction is written for a grand piano in 6/8 time, with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a series of chords in the right hand and a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand. The dynamics range from f (forte) to ff (fortissimo). The introduction concludes with a repeat sign.

The first two lines of the vocal melody are accompanied by the piano. The lyrics are:
 1. O say can you see by the dawn's ear-ly light, What so

The piano accompaniment continues with a steady accompaniment, marked p (piano). The vocal line is in a soprano or alto range.

The next two lines of the vocal melody are accompanied by the piano. The lyrics are:
 proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the foe's haughty host in dread si - lence re - po - ses, What is that which the breeze, o'er the

The final two lines of the vocal melody are accompanied by the piano. The lyrics are:

And where is that band, who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country, shall leave us no more,
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution;
No refuge could save the hireling and slave,
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave
And the star spangled banner, in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

4

O! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand,
Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation,
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that has made and preserv'd us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, In God is our trust;
And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.
