The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note bass line. Dynamics include a forte (f) marking and a fortissimo (ff) marking.

Voice

Old New Or-leans is a great big old southern town Where hos - pi - tal - i - ty Down in old New Or-leans folks it sure is a dream There's where the weath - er's fine

The piano accompaniment for the first vocal line features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

I have sure - ly found The pop - u - la - tion there is ve - ry ve - ry fair you can have some time They dance there ev - 'ry night un - til be - fore day - light

The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note bass line and chordal accompaniment.

with ev' - ry thing they do they all are real - ly true The bands they have down there that's where the Jazz came from gee, you can have some fun This is the place to be

The piano accompaniment concludes the section with the same rhythmic pattern.

sure-ly are hard to com-pare gee, its good e nough for me

Now lis - ten

They sound so good to me
I've seen them folks down there

They made me shake my left shoulder and sometime I shake all ov-er girls Go-ing to that big old dance hall where they al-ways give a big Jazz ball

They play their tunes the best,
They wear their ev'ning gown,

You can-not get no rest
Just dance a round and round

Be-cause the mus-ic sweet 'cause they have some Jazz bands

They made me shake my feet That's the best in the land ev-ry time the band play I have to shake the same way.

Im goin to tell to you how the folks dance down there too.

Now right here you do a

Chorus with Pep

Glide slide prance dance hop p-ff

Stop um um I can nev-er get tired danc-ing by New Or-leans bands Now once more you do a Glide slide dance prance New Or-leans bands will make you do a love-ly shake They make you feel so grand you will join hand in hand I mean I've got the blues

I mean the New Or-leans Blues. Now right here you do a Blues. Fine
