Dove - wings.

Song
for

Mezzo-Soprano.

Words by HENRY VAN DYKE.

R. HUNTINGTON WOODMAN.

Tranquilly. p

Voice. At Sun-set, when the ros - y light was dy - ing Far down the Piano. p

path-way of the west, I saw a lone - ly dove in si - lence

fly - ing, To be at rest. mf agitated
"Pil - grim of rest." But when the dusk a fil - my veil was weav - ing,

p pp

Back came the dove to seek her nest, Deep in the for - est

where her mate was griev - ing: There was true rest.

mf

tranquilly

Peace, heart of mine! no long-er sigh to wan - der,

Lose not thy life in fruit - less quest;

with agitation. Peace, heart of mine! cresc. heart of mine!

Lose not thy life in fruit-less quest.

p tranquilly

Peace, heart of mine! no long-er sigh to wan - der;

Lose not thy life in fruit - less quest,

There are no hap-py is-lands o - ver yon - der; Come home, come home, — and rest! —
