Les Doubles Cordes.

Doppelgriffe.

Les doubles cordes sont propres à donner de l'assurance à la main gauche, de la force aux doigts et de la précision à l'archet. La justesse d'intonation dans les doubles cordes exige aussi du violoniste un sentiment profond de l'harmonie.

Die Doppelgriffe sind geeignet, der linken Hand Sicherheit, den Fingern Kraft und dem Bogen Genauigkeit zu verleihen. Die Richtigkeit der Tonangabe verlangt auch vom Geiger eine tiefe Empfindung der Harmonie.

Moderato.

The page contains ten staves of musical notation for guitar exercises. Each staff consists of two octaves of triads, with ascending and descending lines. The exercises are arranged in pairs of ascending and descending lines. The first staff is in C major, and subsequent staves move through various keys: D major, E major, F major, G major, A major, B major, C minor, D minor, E minor, and F minor. Each staff includes fingering numbers (1-4) and articulation marks like slurs and accents. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'.

This page contains 14 staves of musical notation for guitar. The notation includes treble clefs, a common time signature (C), and various chord voicings and scale patterns. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-4 above notes. The music is organized into measures, with some measures containing multiple notes beamed together. The key signature changes from three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) in the first two staves to three sharps (F-sharp, C-sharp, G-sharp) in the third staff, and remains there for the rest of the page. The notation is dense, with many notes and accidentals.

Moderato.

The musical score consists of 14 staves of music, each representing a different key signature. The scales are written in sixths (two notes per chord) and are performed in a moderate tempo. The notation includes fingerings (numbers 1-4) and articulation marks (accents and slurs) to guide the performer. The keys shown are: C major, G major, D major, A major, E major, B major, F# major, C# major, G# major, D# major, A# major, E# major, B# major, and F major. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The scales are written in a way that demonstrates the technique of first detaching the notes and then connecting them.

The musical score consists of ten systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system is in C major (one sharp). The subsequent systems are in the following keys: D major (two sharps), E major (three sharps), F major (no sharps or flats), G major (one sharp), A major (two sharps), B major (three sharps), C minor (no sharps or flats), D minor (one flat), E minor (two flats), and F minor (three flats). Each system contains two staves of music. The first staff of each system shows the scale with notes detached (staccato), and the second staff shows the same scale with notes tied together (legato). The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 below the notes. The scales are written in sixths, with the upper voice starting on the first line and the lower voice starting on the first space. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the key of the system.

This page of musical notation is a technical exercise for piano, consisting of ten systems of two staves each. The notation is highly detailed, featuring complex chords, arpeggios, and specific fingerings. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The piece is characterized by its intricate harmonic structure and the use of various musical techniques such as slurs, ties, and dynamic markings. The notation is arranged in a vertical column, with each system containing two staves of music. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The notation includes a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a fermata over the final note.

Moderato.

The musical score consists of 16 systems of piano octaves. Each system contains two staves (treble and bass clef) connected by a brace. The first system is in C major, with the right hand ascending and the left hand descending. It includes fingering numbers (1, 2, 3, 4) and an '8' indicating an octave shift. The following systems progress through the keys: D major, E major, F major, G major, A major, B major, C minor, D minor, E minor, F minor, G minor, A minor, B minor, and C major again. Each system follows the same pattern of ascending and descending octaves. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'.

Tonleitern in Decimen.

Abgestossen, dann gebunden.

Large section of musical notation for decime scales (tenth notes) in various keys. It starts with a treble clef and a common time signature, marked 'Moderato'. The notation shows multiple systems of scales in different keys, each with a slur and an '8' above it indicating an octave. The scales are written in a way that demonstrates the technique of detaching and then connecting notes.

This page of musical notation, numbered 17, contains ten systems of piano music. Each system consists of two staves joined by a brace on the left. The notation is dense and complex, featuring a variety of rhythmic patterns and chordal textures. The key signature changes throughout the piece, starting with two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and moving through various other keys, including one sharp (F#) and one flat (B-flat). The music is characterized by frequent use of arpeggiated chords and rapid sixteenth-note passages. Many notes are beamed together, and there are numerous slurs and ties across the staves. The overall style is highly technical and intricate, typical of a late Romantic or early 20th-century piano work.

Le pizzicato de la main gauche se trouve le plus souvent dans les oeuvres de N. Paganini. Nous l'indiquons par ce signe+. Les gammes pincées de la main gauche se font de deux manières: en formant chaque note avec l'index et en pincant la corde du troisième ou du quatrième doigt.

Pizzikato der linken Hand.

Das Pizzikato der linken Hand findet sich am häufigsten in Paganinis Werken. Wir bezeichnen es so+. Die Tonleiter spielt man pizzikato mit der linken Hand auf 2 Arten: entweder man bildet jede Note mit dem Zeigefinger und knipst die Saite mit dem 3^{ten} oder 4^{ten},
