

„SCHÖN SIND, DOCH KALT“ “GLORIOUS, BUT COLD”..

(A. Fr. Graf v. Schack)

The English Words by John Bernhoff

Für mittlere Stimme
For a medium voice

Richard Strauss, Op. 19, Nr. 3

Andantino, dolce e espressivo.

Gesang
Voice

Schön sind, doch kalt die Him - mels - ster - ne, die Ga - - ben Glo - rious, but cold are the stars a - bove me, the gifts are

Piano

karg, die sie ver - leihn für ei - - - - - nen dei - - ner scarce which they be - stow; for thy - - - - - fond glance which Blik - ke ger - - ne hin geb' ich ih-ren gold' - nen Schein. Ge - trennt, — so says: "I love thee!" glad - ly I'd live with - out — their glow. Thus part - - ed, daß wir e - wig dar - ben, nur führen sie im Jah - res-lauf den Herbst mit sei-nen we must die with long - ing, tho' they re-call each seas - on due: with autumn fruit she p

Ä - ren - gar - ben, des Früh - lings Blüten - pracht her - auf; doch or - chard throug - ing where spring and summer blos - soms grew. But f p dolce cresc.

ped. * ped. * ped. *

ff

dei - ne Au - gen, o, der Se - - gen des gan - - zen Jah - - res thine eyes splend - our shed the bless - ing of all the sea - - sons:

espr. ff dim.

ped. * ped. * ped. * ped. *

dim. p

quillt ü - berreich aus ih - - nen stets als mil - der Re - gen, die and bright and fair as morn with dew the earth car - ess - ing, both pp

ped. * ped. * ped. * ped. *

Blü - te und Frucht zu - gleich. blos - soms and fruit are there!

espr. tranquillo

ped. * ped. * ped. *