

Christmas Is Here

Lyrics by Barbara Leeds

Music by Charles Davis

The tree we are lighting,
The cards we are writing,
The neighbors inviting
This time of the year.
The games we are playing,
The scarves we're crocheting,
The relatives staying
For Christmas is here.

We look out the window,
We see the snow fall.
The cold air would freeze our poor noses.
While inside our house
We are having a ball,
And we're warm from our heads to our toeses.

The cookies we're baking,
The photos we're taking,
The mem'ries we're making
For fam'ly is near.
The popcorn is popping,
The kitchen is hopping,
There's last-minute shopping
For Christmas is here.

We look out the window,
We see the snow fall.
The cold air would freeze our poor noses.
While inside our house
We are having a ball,
And we're warm from our heads to our toeses.

With friends and relations
And folks of all nations,
Let's join celebrations
And spread the good cheer.
Our hearts overflowing,
With joy we are glowing,
For Christmas, Christmas is here.

Copyright © 2021 Barbara Leeds and Charles Davis

###