STANDING ON A MOUNTAIN – HIGH EIGHT-ROSES

1st STROPHE

I have been told that there's no heaven.
When I die, there is no paradise.
Religion is tradition and was not my decision.
Nobody talked with me.
In school I learnt to shut up – Listen.
In the army it was just the same.
For WarGames they did use me, ignoring to confuse me.
I learnt to be a slave.

REFRAIN

Now I am standing on a mountain – High.
And I feel and see it all.
Now I am standing on a mountain, mountain – High.
With an angel in my arms.

2nd STROPHE

You should know that there is heaven.
Can't you see, you live in paradise.
Religion is more than tradition, and will be your decision.
It is a part of you.
In school you will learn talking & thinking.
Learn finally simple tricks how to use your brain.
The army as institution, will stop to produce confusion.
United Nations! Just one army fighting ignorance there will be.

REFRAIN

You will be standing on a mountain – High.
You will feel and see it all.
You will be standing on a mountain, mountain – High.
With an angel in your arms.

REFRAIN

We are standing on a mountain – High.
And we feel and see it all.
We are standing on a mountain, mountain – High.
With an angel in our hearts.
