About the artist

I'm a software engineer. Basically, I'm computer geek who loves to solve problems. I have been developing software for the last 25+ years but have recently rekindled my love of music.

Many of my scores are posted with individual parts and matching play-along however, this is not always practical. If you would like individual parts to any of my scores or other specific tailoring, please contact me directly and I will try to accommodate your specific needs.

Comment:

The Lakes of Pontchartrain is an Irish ballad about an unfortunate immigrant from Ireland who is given shelter by a beautiful Louisiana Creole woman. He falls in love with her and asks her to marry him, but she is already promised to a sailor and declines the offer. The exact origin of the song is unknown though it is commonly held to have originated in the southern United States in the 19th century. In the liner notes of Déanta's album Ready f... (more online)

The musical score is arranged for Viola and Harp. It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a Viola part (labeled 'V') and a Harp part (labeled 'H'). The Viola part is written in a bass clef with a 3/4 time signature. The Harp part is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The score begins with a 'Ballad' section. The first system starts with a 'mf' dynamic marking. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and ornaments. There are measure numbers 8, 15, 22, and 29 indicated at the start of their respective systems. The Viola part features a melodic line with some ornaments and a triplet at the end. The Harp part provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and a steady eighth-note pattern.
