"The Wild Mountain Tyme" for Bassoon Quartet Traditional

About the artist

I'm a software engineer. Basically, I'm computer geek who loves to solve problems. I have been developing software for the last 25+ years but have recently rekindled my love of music.

Many of my scores are posted with individual parts and matching play-along however, this is not always practical. If you would like individual parts to any of my scores or other specific tailoring, please contact me directly and I will try to accommodate your specific needs.

Comment:	Wild Mountain Thyme (also known as Purple Heather and Will Ye Go, Lassie, Go) is a folk song written by Francis McPeake, a member of a well known musical family in Belfast, of Scottish origin. McPeake's lyrics are a variant of the song The Braes of Balquhither by Scottish poet Robert Tannahill (1774-1810), a contemporary of Robert Burns. Tannahill's original song, first published in R. A. Smith's Scottish Minstrel (1821-24), is about the h... (more online)
