Rigaudon en La mineur

William Babell (1689/1690 - 1723)

Arr. : Bernard Dewagtere

$\text{♩} = 90$

Violon

Orgue

The first system of the score shows the beginning of the piece. The Violon part (top staff) starts with a treble clef and a common time signature. It features a melodic line with a long slur over the first four measures, followed by a fermata and a second slur. The Orgue part (bottom staves) consists of two staves. The right hand plays chords and single notes, while the left hand provides a bass line with some rests. A fermata is placed over the final chord of the system.

The second system continues the piece. The Violon part (top staff) has a measure number '5' above the first measure. It continues with a melodic line, including a slur and a fermata. The Orgue part (bottom staves) continues with its accompaniment, featuring a fermata over the final chord of the system.

Vln.

The third system continues the piece. The Violon part (top staff) has a measure number '10' above the first measure. It continues with a melodic line, including a slur and a fermata. The Orgue part (bottom staves) continues with its accompaniment, featuring a fermata over the final chord of the system.
