About the artist

I'm a software engineer. Basically, I'm computer geek who loves to solve problems. I have been developing software for the last 25+ years but have recently rekindled my love of music.

Many of my scores are posted with individual parts and matching play-along however, this is not always practical. If you would like individual parts to any of my scores or other specific tailoring, please contact me directly and I will try to accommodate your specific needs.

Comment:	Nimm, was dein ist, und gehe hin (Take what is yours and go away), BWV 144, is a church cantata by Johann Sebastian Bach. He composed it in Leipzig for the Sunday Septuagesimae, the third Sunday before Lent, and first performed it on 6 February 1724. Bach wrote the cantata in his first year in Leipzig for Septuagesimae. The prescribed readings for the Sunday were taken from the First Epistle to the Corinthians, race for victory (1 Corinthians... (more online)

Words: Mike Magatagan 2014

Piano mf

1. O there is glo - ry in of your name; I sing your prai - ses ev - ery day.
2. Now hear the glo - ry of your words, the pass - ion pre - sent for the world.

6

Now Help guide me, to do what earth - ly view I do long to be, what I need to be.
I do not know what waits for me.
I would do, I long to be, what I need to be.

Refrain

11

To your glo - ry, sing your prai - ses, make my life mean so much more. Let's sing the glo - ry in your name.
