How can you earn with bond trading?

About the artist

Hi, everyone My name is Blake. I blog about investings tips, finance and how to earn money. Trading is my game. Its my passion. Im always looking for the next opportunity so I can turn a profit and make more money. Also, in my spare time I read self-improvement books, play golf with my friends and listening and creating music.

Comment: Investing in bonds is a smart decision because it can produce three different ways for you to make money. The first way would be through coupon payments, price appreciation if bought at discounted rates and held until maturity or trading around interest rate volatility before they mature - when Rates go up prices rise too! If you are interested in low commission trading and would like to gain access to the global bond market, you can do so with t... (more online)
