About the piece

Title:	All People that on Earth do Dwell [Old Hundredth]
Composer:	Bourgeois, Louis
Arranger:	William Parsons
Copyright:	Copyright © Matthew Bennett
Publisher:	Bennett, Matthew
Instrumentation:	Choral 4 voices
Style:	Hymn
Comment:	The Old Hundredth is one of the most well known hymn tunes in Western Christian traditions. This arrangement by William Parsons is the first English arrangement of the tune set to the words by William Kethe. Verse 5 came later and was written by Thomas Ken. It should be noted that, as in most renaissance pieces, the tune is in the tenor line.
