Prélude (Soir d'été )

About the artist

Born on November 26, 1952 in Algeria, Fabiani, Jean- François discovered the guitar during his adolescence spent in Corsica. Turning to the instrument by its folk, very quickly his interest extends to classical music. After studying for two years musicology at the University of Aix en Provence, he entered the Conservatoire National de Region Nice, and won a first prize guitar. Anxious to complete his musical training, he works harmony and conducting. Having made numerous concerts training room: guitar duo, trio with flute and viola duo with clarinet, guitar quartet, his career as a teacher and his growing interest in music together, have brought to realise Many arrangements and transcriptions for guitar and guitar ensemble. His appointment to various posts of Directors opens its musical horizons and led him to compose and arrange for various instruments.

Musical score for 'Ajaccio Août 1989', page 2. The score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). It consists of ten staves of music, each containing four measures. The first nine staves (measures 37-71) feature a consistent rhythmic pattern of eighth notes with a dotted quarter note, often beamed in groups of four. The final staff (measures 72-75) is marked 'Harm. VII' and features a melodic line with a slur over the last two measures, ending with a fermata.
