About the artist

I was born in 1970 in the so called "Ruhrpott" in Germany. At the age of 6, I began with flutes and chimes, a year later I began my training at the piano, which I continued up to my 24th age. At the age of 13, I also began to sing in the choir - and I was so much fun that I still am active in various choirs. At one point I sat down at the piano and even began to compose. At first it was for me a way to express my feelings. Later, however, was always more joy to the composition. Meanwhile, I write more and more intense, choir and instruments followed.

Free scores gives me the opportunity to publish my compositions and to share with others. With my music I want other people to give pleasure, but also thought-provoking. For me there is nothing better than another person to put a smile on his face. If I can achieve that, I'm satisfied.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together, with a few accidentals. The bass staff contains a similar rhythmic pattern with some chords and rests.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. The treble staff features more complex rhythmic patterns with beamed notes and slurs. The bass staff continues with a steady rhythmic accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation, showing intricate melodic lines in both staves. The treble staff has many beamed notes and slurs, while the bass staff has a more rhythmic accompaniment.

Fourth system of musical notation, marked B langsamer and p. The treble staff has a few notes followed by a rest, then a mf section. The bass staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation, featuring dynamic markings p and mf. The treble staff has chords and some melodic lines, while the bass staff has a rhythmic accompaniment.

Sixth system of musical notation, featuring dynamic markings mf and f. The treble staff has chords and some melodic lines, while the bass staff has a rhythmic accompaniment.

A a tempo

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of two staves each. The first system begins with a bass clef on the left and a treble clef on the right. The second system starts with a treble clef. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and dynamic markings like mf, p, fz, f, and rit. There are also repeat signs and a final double bar line at the end of the fifth system.
