Le Swing des lémurs

About the artist

I was born in 1949. I have been playing the guitar mainly for accompaniment since the age of 15, but my musical training is self-taught. I started composing twenty years ago. First, melodies alone, then their arrangements for orchestra. For my scores, I use music composition software that also allows me to listen to what I have just written. The piano parts are played by my wife, a pianist who has studied music in the conservatory.

I don't subscribe to any particular genre. When a few notes come to my mind, I put them on a staff. Then, I develop and add the staves for the other instruments in order to realize the arrangement.

About the piece

Title: Le Swing des lémurs
Composer: Leroux, Philippe
Copyright: Copyright © Philippe Leroux
Instrumentation: Choral SA, Strings and Keyboard
Style: Swing
Comment: They are adorable, lively, playful: the catta lemurs had given me the idea of a slide show. Then I composed for it a swing style music for piano, choir and orchestra, something cheerful. Véronique Dambricourt plays the piano part.
