

God gave to men and women life and breath

Nathan Smith

SOPRANO

ALTO

TENOR

BASS

1. God gave to men and wo - men life and breath, But by
 2. He sowed the seeds of e - ver - las - ting love, And His
 3. Like dice u - pon a ta - vern ta - ble thrown, Thrones of 4. If we re - mem - ber the tea - chings that He taught, We can
 5. How shall we stand with the an - ge - lic host And not sin we be - came the slaves of death God be - came man for our sins to a - mes - sen - gers e - very - where were sent. As wise as ser - pents and as meek as ty - rants clat - ter to the ground He is the Fre - er of cap - tives, and the to no righ - teous - ness pre - tend, For who will claim to be li - ving as he wi - ther in that ho - ly light? We were as in - sub - stan - tial as a tone, He was cru - ci - fied, for - sa - ken, and a - lone. And e - v'ry doves, They a - mazed the peo - ple e - very-where they went. It was a Stone that the pro-phets told would tear earth's king-doms down. He made the ought, when per - fec - tion we've be - gun to com - pre - hend? But let us ghost Had not Christ re-stored to us our lost birth - right. For end-less sor-row or tri - al that we face, Hun - ger, ha - tred, be - tray'l, the fi - ring scan-dal that they were so bold, They feared nor gods nor Cae - sars, scourge nor slave the e - qual of the king, And made the meek and low - ly heirs of has - ten to give joy - ful - ly, Of all we have to the nee - dy and the a - ges we shall praise His name, We sons of sor-row will make the an - gels squad, chain. all. poor, glad. The like He suf-fered, the Sa-vior of our race, Slaves and phi-lo-so-phers en-tered the fold, It is His plea-sure to give us e-very-thing, We can't de-serve what God gives us for free, E-man-u-el has wip-ed a-way our shame. As He And a If we But by We will

4

14

17

made us mem-bers of the Bo-dy of Christ our God. world grown an-cient in its sins was made young a-gain. but ack-now-ledge our emp-ti-ness and heed His call. gi-ving trea-sures in Hea-ven we'll lay up in store. walk the streets of gold with glo-ry and ho-nor clad.