The first system of the musical score consists of four staves, each representing a different clarinet part. All staves are in the treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 2/2 time signature. The music begins with a series of quarter notes, followed by a half note, and then a series of quarter notes. The parts are arranged in a way that they play in unison or in close harmony.

The second system of the musical score continues the four clarinet parts. It begins with a measure marked with a '5' above the first staff. The music continues with a series of quarter notes, followed by a half note, and then a series of quarter notes. The parts are arranged in a way that they play in unison or in close harmony.

The third system of the musical score continues the four clarinet parts. It begins with a measure marked with a '10' above the first staff. The music continues with a series of quarter notes, followed by a half note, and then a series of quarter notes. The parts are arranged in a way that they play in unison or in close harmony.
