D.Soloviev

$\text{♩} = 80$   $\text{♩}$

The first system of music is in 4/4 time with a tempo of quarter note = 80. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The first measure contains a whole rest in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. The second measure is a repeat sign. The following three measures feature a complex chordal texture in the treble with eighth-note patterns, while the bass line consists of quarter notes.

5

1. 2.

The second system starts at measure 5. It features a first ending (1.) and a second ending (2.). The first ending leads to the second ending. The treble part continues with complex chordal patterns, and the bass part continues with quarter notes.

9

D.S.

The third system starts at measure 9. It includes the instruction 'D.S.' (Da Capo). The treble part has a more active melodic line with eighth notes, while the bass part remains mostly quarter notes.

12

The fourth system starts at measure 12. It concludes the piece with a final cadence. The treble part features a series of chords, and the bass part ends with a whole note.
