Erregina eta sahatsak Traditional

About the artist

I am a recorder and txistu player, and I teach both instruments at the Municipal School of Music and Dance of San Sebastián. The scores you will find here are mostly traditional Basque melodies which I arrange for recorder quartet. Most of them are appropriate for beginners or intermediate level students.

Comment: Erregina eta saratsak means in basque the queen and the willows. These old melodies were played in the month of May in many towns in the Basque Country. They disguised a little girl as a queen and others as willows, and went asking for money or food. The last melody in ternary rhythm is for those who do not give anything. The celebration has to do with the beginning of spring and the emergence of nature. There are similar festivals in many to... (more online)
