A propos de l'artiste

I, Idowu Matthew Babalola was born into the family of Mr and Mrs Babalola Micheal in September 1978. Though my parents are from Ekiti State, Nigeria but I was born in Akure in Ondo State, Nigeria. I attended St thomas's Anglican Primary School, I was later transferred to Army children school to complete my primary education. I started and completed my secondary education in Akure Secondary commercial School Akure. I later proceeded to Akwa ibom State Polytechnic for my diploma In Business Administration. I started my music career in my third year in secondary School. Though I was not privileged to attend a music school but I tried to develop myself in the choir and some other music clubs. I love classical/Gospel songs.

Come, Let Us Tune Our Loftiest Song

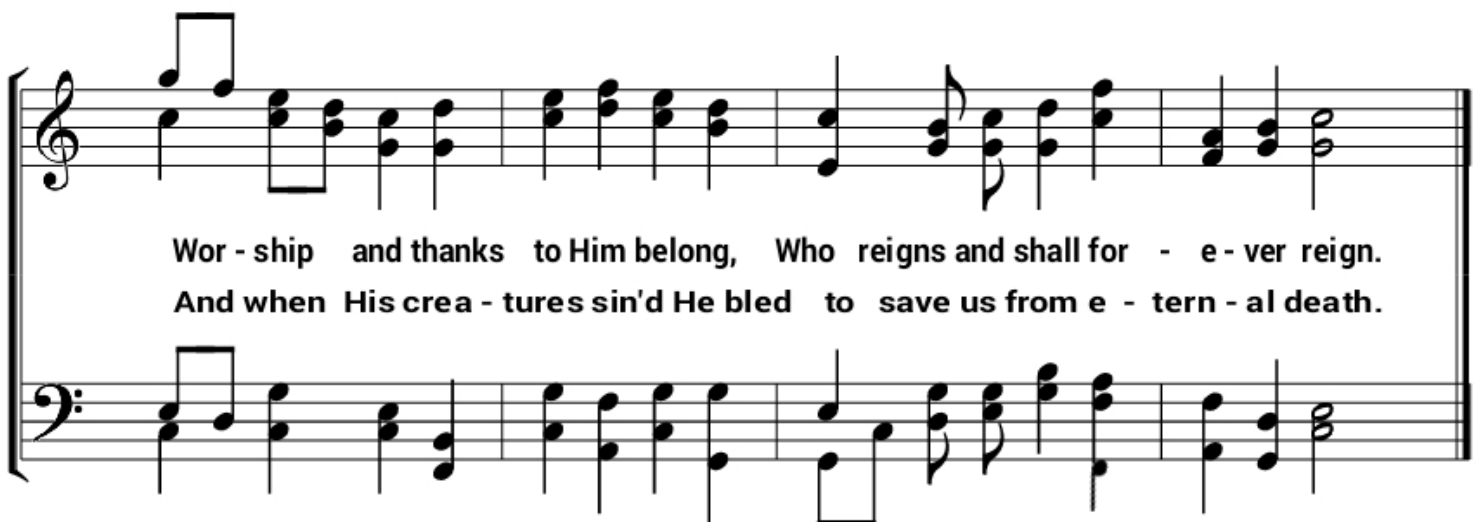

KINGSON L.M.

Robert A. West 1809-1865

Idowu M. Babalola

1. Come, let us tune our loftiest song. And raise to Christ our joy - ful strain;
2. His sov'reign pow'r our bodies made; Our souls are His immor - tal breath;

Wor - ship and thanks to Him belong, Who reigns and shall for - e - ver reign.
And when His crea - tures sin'd He bled to save us from e - tern - al death.
