

Christmas Time in Carolina

Joni Green

D.C. al Coda

Christ-mas time in Car-o-lin-a, cher-ished mem-'ries fill my mind. Of run-ning ce-dar and mis-tle-toe, the scent of south-ern pine. Pa - per chains and pop-corn strings dec-o-rate the tree. Car-o-lin-a Christ-mas brings home right back to me. I sit be-

3

4

7
My Gran-ny's
My mom and
So man - y

12
side - this dy - ing fire, and watch its o - range glow, re - mem - ber cook - ing for us all and Pa is in his chair. The house is dad were young - er then. No sil - ver's touched their hair. We child - ren that I loved are gone. They were so dear to me. They still live

3

Christmas Time in Carolina

2
16

ing the Christ-mas joys of man - y years a - go. Christ-mas time in Car-o-lin-a, full of Christ-mas cheer as loved ones gath er near.
wait ex - pec - tant - ly. There's mag - ic in the air.
on in - side my heart. Sweet, gold - en mem o - ries.

20

cher-ished mem-'ries fill my mind. Of run-ning ce-dar and mis-tle-toe, the scent of south-ern pine. Pa-per chains and pop-corn strings dec-o-rate the tree. Car-o-lin-a

23

27

Christ - mas. Sweet gold - en mem - o - ies.