

Not So Long Ago

Joni Green

You look up at the dark night sky,
Star-crossed beau. Life's a fairy tale.
wondering why you even
You promised love would nev-

4
ven try. er fail. But it was - n't al - ways so, That's just how her sto - ry goes, not so long a - go. not so long a - go.

8
Ain't it fun - ny how the years slip passed. For - ev - er young can ne - ver last.

12
Life seems to fade from your half - filled glass. That's just how it goes.

16

And to-mor-row seems so far a-way. You blink, and then, it's yes-ter-day. But it was-n't al-ways so, not so long a-go. You had the world

20

25

right in your hand. Had your pick of an-y man. So man-y dreams and so man-y

29

plans, not so a-go. Ain't it fun-ny how the years slip passed.

33

For-ev-er young can nev-er last. Life seems to fade from your half-filled glass.

37

That's just how it goes. And to-mor-row seems so far a - way. You blink, and then, it's yes - ter - day. But it was - n't al - ways so,

41

44

not so long a - go.
