

Rockers on the Porch

Joni Green

The rock-ers on the front porch bring back mem-o-ries. I re-mem-ber when 5 you walked the earth. Yours were the hands that held me at my

9 birth. And in my mind, I see those rock-ers on the porch. The rock-ers on the front porch bring back mem - o - ries. The world was young - er then.

14

18

And I re-mem-ber when two peo-ple that I loved filled them with qui-et grace. And in my mind, I see those rock-ers on the porch. There were long talks, the kind that help you work things out. Hot summer days, the perfect spot to string your beans, to watch kids play. A come-to-Jesus meeting place.

22

27

31

35

A place to rest and wipe your weary brow. The rockers on the porch are 39

emp - ty now.
