

In the Highlands

Robert Louis Stevenson

Alastair Lewis

Tenor

8

In the high-lands, in the coun - try pla - ces, Where the old
Where ess - ential sil-ence cheers and bles - ses, And for -

Piano

6

T

8

plain men have ro - sy fa - ces. And the young fair maid-ens ev - er in the hill re - ces - ses. Her more lov - ely mus - ic

Pno.

6

13

T

8

Qui - et eyes. O to mount a -
Broods and dies.

Pno.

13

20

T

gain where erst I haun - ted, Where the old red hills.

Pno.

27

T

Are bird en - chan - ted. And the green mead - dows Bright with sward.

Pno.

33

T

And when ev - en dies the mil - lion tin - ted. And the Pno.

38

T

night has come and, plan - ets glin - ted. Lo! the val - ley

Pno.

44

T

8

hol - low, Lamp bes - tarr'd. O to Lo! for Pno.

50

T

8

dream, O to A - wake and wan - der, There, there, a - mong the, flo - wers and gras - ses, On - ly the Pno.

56

T

8

and with de - light. To take and ren - der.
migh - ti - er move - ment. Sounds and pas - ses.

Pno.

61

T

8

Through the trance of sil - lence, Qui - et breath! breath!
On - ly winds and ri - vers Life and death.

Pno.

1. 2.