You say you have not learned to love me, And
To me the world would seem much brighter, Had

8

that we two must live a - part, Are I not seen your face so fair, My 10

all my hopes in vain to win you, And ach - ing heart would be much light - er, If 12

has an - oth - er won your heart; You love for you were nev - er their; Some 14

are the dream of all my dreams dear, You day I'll learn the ten - der les - son, Some-16

are the wealth for which I seek, Your time - some - day per - haps I'll know, I

18

hearts the treas-ure that I want dear, With dare not tell how much I love you, Al

you my life would be com - plete.
though I've of - ten told you so.

Chorus

If time would teach you dear to love me, — If time would bring you to my

26

heart, — If time would bring me joy and glad - ness, — I'd 29

time each hour that we're a - part; _____ If time would drive a - way my

32

sor - rows, _____ If time would bring me hopes a -

34

new, _____ If time would bid me hopes to 36

win you, I'd wait dear heart, _____ I'd wait for you. _____ rall.
