Warm-Up Groove

A propos de l'artiste

I am a recreational musician, strongly influenced by playing the church organ for many years, by performing as a keyboard player in various bands and by singing in choirs. More info and music is available on my homepage.

Warm-Up Groove

Jochen Litzinger

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass and a more complex melodic line in the treble, including some triplets.

The second system continues the piece. It features a double bar line in the middle of the system. Above the first measure of the second half, there is a '2' indicating a second ending. Above the final measure of the system, there is a '3' indicating a triplet.

The third system continues the piece. It features a double bar line in the middle of the system. Above the first measure of the second half, there is a '3' indicating a triplet. Above the final measure of the system, there is a '2' indicating a second ending.

The fourth system continues the piece. It features a double bar line in the middle of the system. Above the first measure of the second half, there is a '3' indicating a triplet.

The fifth system continues the piece. It features a double bar line in the middle of the system.

The sixth system continues the piece. It features a double bar line in the middle of the system.

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass clef staff with a key signature of one flat and a 3/4 time signature. The treble staff contains a complex melodic line with many beamed eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. The treble staff shows a melodic line with some rests and beamed notes, and the bass staff continues with a consistent rhythmic accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a more active melodic line with frequent sixteenth-note patterns, and the bass staff maintains its accompaniment role.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff has a melodic line with some rests and beamed notes, and the bass staff continues with a consistent rhythmic accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff features a melodic line with some rests and beamed notes, and the bass staff continues with a consistent rhythmic accompaniment.

Sixth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. The treble staff has a melodic line with some rests and beamed notes, and the bass staff continues with a consistent rhythmic accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.
