The musical score consists of five systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system features a melody in the treble staff and a bass line in the bass staff, with a dynamic marking of mp. The second system includes a time signature change to 2/4 and a dynamic marking of mf. The third system features a time signature change to 4/4 and a dynamic marking of p. The fourth and fifth systems continue the musical development with various rhythmic patterns and dynamics.

The image displays three systems of musical notation for a piano piece. Each system consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The first system includes a melodic line in the treble clef and a rhythmic accompaniment in the bass clef, with a dynamic marking of mp and several instances of Red. and asterisks. The second system features a more complex melodic line in the treble clef and a rhythmic accompaniment in the bass clef, also with Red. and asterisks. The third system shows a treble clef staff with a single note and a bass clef staff with a rhythmic accompaniment, including Red. and asterisks.
