First system of a piano score. The right hand features a complex, rapid melodic line with many slurs and accents. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords and eighth notes.

Second system of the piano score. The right hand continues with intricate melodic patterns, while the left hand maintains a consistent rhythmic accompaniment.

Third system of the piano score. The right hand's melodic line becomes more dynamic, with several accents. The left hand's accompaniment remains consistent.

Fourth system of the piano score. The right hand features a very dense and fast melodic passage. The left hand has a more active accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line and a fff dynamic marking in both staves.

Two empty musical staves, one for the treble clef and one for the bass clef, positioned at the bottom of the page.
