A propos de l'artiste

Henry Pool is born on June 12, 1939 in Amsterdam, Netherlands, as the second of four siblings, all boys. His family suffered with the rest of the Dutch nation the horrors of the Second World War. After the war he went to elementary school, high school and teachers' seminary. He worked seven years as a teacher in Amsterdam, then emigrated to Israel. After a short sojourn in kibbutz Sha'alvim he joined in 1967 a Rabbinical College in Netivot. In 1969 he married Lilette Sroussi, a girl from Paris, France, who emigrated to Israel in 1968. During the years the couple has been blessed with five children. In 1974 they moved to Jerusalem, where he started to work as a graphic artist. In 1988 they emigrated to the USA, where they still live, now as American citizens. In the USA he worked as a computer operator. In 2004 he retired.

Though his career as a composer hasn't been an easy one, he managed over the years to rise to the level of a professional composer. Beside one year (at age 8) of piano lessons he never got any training. He has taught himself and learned by playing the piano, studying the compositions of the masters, going to concerts, listening to classical radio and recordings and from exploring books on composition, harmony, counterpoint, orchestration, etc..... Introduction

Both the lyrics and the music of “Nations United for Choir and Piano” have been written by the composer. He is watching the daily news like anyone else and is very dumbfounded by, what is going on at the “United Nations”, an organization, which should help keeping peace and prevent wars. Not only aren’t they succeeding in this – a third of the world population is in upheaval – but worse: it looks like, that, what the representatives of the many nations know best, is to quarrel among themselves. It may be human nature, but it also shows, that mankind hasn’t yet risen above itself and isn’t not nearly enough matured to enter messianic times.

But nevertheless, already more than 2,700 years ago, even in the midst of political troubles, the prophet Isaiah kept intensely hoping for better times. He told the people:

“It will happen in the end of days, that the mountain of the LORD's House will be firmly established as the head of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and all the nations will stream to it.

Many peoples will go and say: ‘Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the House of the God of Jacob;

that He shall teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For from Zion will the Law go forth, and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

He will judge among the nations, and will settle the arguments of many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation and they will no longer study warfare.” (Isaiah 2:2-4)

The poem the composer wrote was inspired by these Bible verses and put in simple modern English. Many people are asking themselves and others: ‘What can we do to bring true peace into this world?’ The answer, they give themselves, is: start by yourself. Only if everyone can love and respect his or her fellow citizen and is willing to hold in his or her pride and forfeit his or her self-importance, only then we will bring true peace to the world. Only then will ‘friend and foe’ be ‘brothers’.

The choir is singing a simple song, that slowly will reach its climax, when the boys choir in a steady crescendo sings a slow final chorus over the chorus of the main choir:

‘When peace breaks out and love does sprout!’

Nations United

(Chorus)

*What shall we do, when peace breaks out
and no one ever bothers?*

*What shall we do, when love does sprout
and friend and foe are brothers?*

(Song)

We'll gag the guns in every town and flag the snow-white pennons.
We'll take the tanks and melt them down,
together with their cannons.

(Chorus)

*What shall we do, when peace breaks out
and no one ever bothers?*

*What shall we do, when love does sprout
and friend and foe are brothers?*

(Song)

We'll plow the plains and sow the seed,
to harvest more than plenty.
We'll bring the bread to all in need,
in showplace or in shanty.

(Chorus)

*What shall we do, when peace breaks out
and no one ever bothers?*

*What shall we do, when love does sprout
and friend and foe are brothers?*

(Song)

We'll offer as a sacrifice
our pride and self-pretension.
We'll make the world a paradise,
akin to God's intention.

(Chorus)

*Yea, that we'll do, when peace breaks out
and no one ever bothers!*

*Yea, that we'll do, when love does sprout
and friend and foe are brothers!*

Chorus

The musical score is arranged in a grand staff format. It includes the following parts:

- Boy Soprano: Four staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notes are mostly rests, with a final note in the fourth measure.
- Soprano: One staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The notes are mostly rests, with a final note in the fourth measure.
- Alto: One staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The notes are mostly rests, with a final note in the fourth measure.
- Tenor: One staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The notes are mostly rests, with a final note in the fourth measure.
- Baritone: One staff with a bass clef and a key signature of one flat. The notes are mostly rests, with a final note in the fourth measure.
- Bass: One staff with a bass clef and a key signature of one flat. The notes are mostly rests, with a final note in the fourth measure.
- Piano: A grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat. It features a complex melodic line in the right hand and a simpler accompaniment in the left hand.

The score is divided into four measures. The first three measures contain rests for all vocal parts. The fourth measure contains the vocal notes and the piano accompaniment. The word "What" is written below the vocal notes in the fourth measure for the Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Baritone, and Bass parts.
