Pepper, Porcelain, Calicoes

J Raffine

Verse 1

"Pepp-er, Por-ce-lain, Call-i-coes, And oth-er goods for sale" See the East-ern ships home, har-boured Just now be-ing baled The own-ers_ think of gold now The sail-ors sil-ver coin But for me, my Jack's come_ home at last

Verse 2

Two years, he was gone See the cadd-ies and tea-sets, in fine de-signs In the sale rooms, from nine 'til two There are silks in bright tones paint-ed And who knows what's new But trade is_ ne-ver end-ing And when the fresh winds blow Well, my man must needs sail a-way a-gain Kiss, wave and go His ship will need some encour-age-ment If she's to make the voyage a-gain She is worm'd and leak-ing badly Needs caulk, nine boards in ten But the fitt-ers know their busi-ness She'll come out strong, and then Take my dear man far from his wife and home Re-turn date of "when"

man must needs sail a-way a-gain Kiss, wave and go His ship will need some en-
cour-age-ment If she's to make the voyage a-gain She is worm'd and leak-ing badly Needs
caulk, nine boards in ten But the fitt-ers know their busi-ness She'll come out strong, and

“Pepper, Porcelain, Callicoes
 And other goods for sale”
 See the Eastern ships home, harboured Just now being baled
 The owners think of gold now
 The sailors, silver coin
 But for me, my Jack’s come home at last Two years, he was gone

See the caddies ‘n tea-sets, in fine designs
 In the sale rooms, from nine ‘til two
 There are silks in bright tones painted And who knows what’s new But trade is never-ending
 And when the fresh winds blow Well, my man must needs sail away again Kiss, wave and go

His ship will need some encouragement
 If she’s to make the voyage again
 She is worm’d and leaking badly Needs caulk, nine boards in ten
 But the fitters know their business She’ll come out strong, and then Take my dear man far from his wife and home Return date of “when”
