PROGRAMME NOTE BY THE COMPOSER

---

I don't often recycle old works into new ones (the only other example I can think of in which I did something somewhat similar is Memory Quilt, for flute and piano), but I had been looking for an opportunity to arrange some music I wrote in the 1980's for orchestra when I was asked by Peter Gardner to provide something for the Newfoundland Symphony in 1995. Two of the Three Lorca Sketches for Orchestra grew from a set of songs I wrote in 1988 (revised in 1996) for soprano and string quartet, called Canciones Sobre el Amor y la Muerte ("Songs of Love and Death"), based on the poetry of Federico García Lorca (1898-1936). The third Lorca Sketch is loosely based on Passage 2 for Orchestra (1992), but this is a substantial revision (and scored for a smaller orchestra).

1. Es Verdad ("It is True") is a straightforward orchestral arrangement of the song of the same name from my earlier set, with the soprano melody given to the English horn. The poem's protagonist is bemoaning the amount of effort involved in loving another. The mood seems both melodramatic and somewhat tongue-in-cheek (one verse is, "Because of my love for you, air pains me, as does my heart. And my hat hurts too."), which I tried to capture in the music.

2. Interlude, is again drawn from my Lorca songs; originally for string quartet, it is arranged here for string orchestra. My goal was to compose an instrumental interlude between songs/movements that conveyed both the beauty and the fatalism expressed in Lorca's poetry. The Interlude's subtitle, La Muerte Me Está Mirando ("Death is Watching Me"), is a reference to a line in Canción de Jinete, a Lorca poem about someone taking a long journey by eerily red moonlight to Córdoba on a road he knows very well, but, although he can see it in the distance, he knows he will never get there (see poem below). The poem was set to music in my Lorca songs, but this string orchestra piece is unrelated to the song. The lyricism of the long melodic lines is interrupted occasionally by short bursts of passionate energy by a solo violin; I think of these gestures as representing attempts to break free of the fatalism by exercising free will. The attempts prove futile, however, and the violin ultimately becomes more subdued along with the other players; the long, descending string slide at the end marks the demise of the poem's protagonist.

3. El Niño Come Naranjas ("The Boy is Eating Oranges") is a line from a Lorca poem called Despedida ("Farewell"), which juxtaposes mundane everyday acts, like eating oranges and the harvesting of wheat (by a reaper), with a serene acceptance of the inevitable ("if I die, leave the balcony open"). The character of this Lorca Sketch is completely different from the others; the mundane is represented by the up-beat sections (like the opening fanfare for the trumpets and the jazz-like "walking" bass lines), while the mystical serenity is suggested by the steadily pulsing and hypnotic middle section.

This third movement has no musical connection to my Lorca song set, although it borrows some of its materials from the second of my Three Passages for Orchestra (1992).

Three Lorca Sketches is dedicated to the memory of my mother, who died in 1978, and who encouraged my love for music. The Interlude in particular was composed with her in mind.

POETRY BY FEDERICO GARCÍA LORCA (FROM CANCIONES, 1921-24)

I. CANCION DE JINETE

Córdoba.
Lejana y sola.

Jaca negra, luna grande,
y aceitunas en mi alforja.
Aunque sepa los caminos yo nunca llegaré a Córdoba.

Por el llano, por el viento,
Jaca negra, luna roja.
La muerte me está mirando
desde las torres de Córdoba.

¡Ay qué camino tan largo!
¡Ay mi jaca valerosa!
¡Ay que la muerte me espera,
antes de llegar a Córdoba!

Córdoba.
Lejana y sola.

II. ES VERDAD

¡Ay qué trabajo me cuesta
quererte como te quiero!

Por tu amor me duele el aire,
el corazón
y el sombrero.

¿Quién me compraría a mí,
este cintillo que tengo
y esta tristeza de hilo blanco, para hacer pañuelos?

¡Ay qué trabajo me cuesta
quererte como te quiero!

III. INTERLUDE

(La muerte me está mirando ...)

IV. DESPEDIDA

Si muero,
dejad el balcón abierto.

El niño come naranjas.
(Desde mi balcón lo veo.)

El segador siega el trigo.
(Desde mi balcón lo siento.)

¡Sí muero,
dejad el balcón abierto!

©Clark Winslow Ross

I. SONG OF THE RIDER

Córdoba.
Distant and solitary.

Black pony, big moon,
and olives in my saddle-bag.
Although I know the roads
I will never reach Córdoba.

Through the plain, through the wind,
Black pony, red moon.
Death is watching me
from the towers of Córdoba.

Ay what a long road!
Ay my valiant pony!
Ay but death awaits me,
before I reach Córdoba!

Córdoba.
Distant and solitary.

II. IT IS TRUE

Oh what work it is
to love you as I do!

Because of my love for you, air pains me,
(and also) my heart
and my hat.

Who would buy from me
this ribbon that I hold and this white thread of grief, to make handkerchiefs?

Oh what work it is
to love you as I do!

III. INTERLUDE

(Death is watching me ...)

IV. FAREWELL

If I die,
leave the balcony open.

The boy is eating oranges.
(From my balcony I can see him.)

The reaper is harvesting the wheat.
(From my balcony I can hear him.)

If I die,
leave the balcony open!
