The musical score is written for two guitars. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a 2/4 time signature. The tempo is marked "Allegro". The first system shows measures 1-5, with both guitars playing a melody of eighth notes and chords. The second system shows measures 6-10, with the first guitar playing a more complex melody and the second guitar providing a steady accompaniment. The third system shows measures 11-15, featuring a triplet in the first guitar part. The fourth system shows measures 17-21, with the first guitar playing a fast, rhythmic pattern and the second guitar providing a steady accompaniment. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
