The first system of the musical score is for an organ. It consists of three staves: a right-hand treble staff, a left-hand bass staff, and a middle staff. The time signature is 4/4. The right-hand staff begins with a whole rest, followed by a series of chords in the second and third measures. The left-hand staff plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The middle staff contains whole notes and rests.

The second system of the musical score continues from the first. It features three staves. The right-hand staff has a melodic line with eighth notes and chords. The left-hand staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The middle staff has whole notes and rests.

The third system of the musical score continues. The right-hand staff has a melodic line with eighth notes and chords. The left-hand staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The middle staff has whole notes and rests.

The fourth system of the musical score concludes the piece. It features three staves. The right-hand staff has a melodic line with eighth notes and chords. The left-hand staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The middle staff has whole notes and rests. The system ends with a double bar line.
