Prélude à Debussy

Jérôme SZCZUR

Handwritten musical notation for the first system. It consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a 4/4 time signature. The music features a complex, flowing melody in the right hand and a more rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. There are some markings above the notes, possibly indicating fingerings or dynamics.

Handwritten musical notation for the second system. It continues the piece with similar melodic and harmonic development. A 'c' marking is visible above the right-hand staff, and a '5' marking is above the final note of the right-hand staff.

Handwritten musical notation for the third system. The notation shows further melodic and harmonic progression. There are some markings above the notes, possibly indicating fingerings or dynamics.

Handwritten musical notation for the fourth system. The music continues with intricate melodic lines and harmonic textures. There are some markings above the notes, possibly indicating fingerings or dynamics.
