A propos de l'artiste

Music is a red thread throughout my life. My deceased father played harmonica, and organ. I started to play organ at the age of 14, soon clarinet in a marching band. From clarinet it was a small step to tenor saxophone. This instrument I have been playing for more than thirty years now. I play in a saxophone quintet, for which I have written several pieces. Some 15 years ago I started writing music with Sibelius, which I still use. I sometimes write, produce and perform music together with painting and sculpturing artists. My music is contemporary. I think I managed to create my own connective style. If you want to use my music, please contact me. Cheers, Gerard.
